Reviews

1. For the price, you really can't beat the picture quality. Even though it's only 720p HD, the PurColor and HDR features make the colors look incredibly vibrant. The Tizen OS is also very snappy and has all the streaming apps I need right out of the box. (5 stars, posted 2 months ago)
2. I bought this as a secondary TV for the bedroom, and the slim design is perfect. The Object Tracking Sound is surprisingly good for a TV this size, though I eventually paired it with a small soundbar to take advantage of the Q-Symphony feature. (4 stars, posted 4 months ago)
3. Great budget smart TV! Setup was a breeze, and Apple Airplay works seamlessly whenever I want to cast videos from my phone. My only minor complaint is that the remote feels a bit basic, but the voice control using Bixby makes up for it. (5 stars, posted a month ago)
